B. C. DOUGHERTY, first being duly sworn, deposes and says:

That he is now and was during all the times mentioned herein, the duly appointed, acting and qualified Street Superintendent of the City of Lodi;

That, on Monday, the first day of April, 1935, The City Council of the City of Lodi passed and adopted its Resolution No. 762, wherein the said City Council declared its intention to order the following work to be done in said City, to-wit:

The abandonment of that certain alley dedicated to public use in a deed from R.B. O'Dell and wife to Jacob Yanke dated November 19, 1918 particularly described as follows:-

The northerly ten feet of the following tract of land, commencing for the same on the East line of Washington Avenue at its intersection with the North line of Vine Street and running thence easterly on and along the said North line of Vine Street a distance of one hundred thirty feet; thence Northerly and parallel to the East line of Washington Avenue a distance of two hundred feet; thence westerly and parallel to the North line of Vine Street a distance of one hundred thirty feet; thence Southerly on and along the East line of Washington Avenue a distance of two hundred feet to the point of beginning, being a portion of Lot 37 of The Lodi Barnhart Tract.

That, after the adoption of said Resolution No. 762, he personally posted notices conspicuously along the line of said alley and in front of all property abutting thereon, notices of the passage of said resolution, headed " NOTICE OF PUBLIC WORK " in letters not less than one inch in height, a copy of which notice is annexed hereto and made part hereof.

That he posted said notices by nailing them with metal tacks to posts, fences, walls or trees, in such a manner that they would attract attention of passersby and be easily readable;

That he measured the distance between each notice posted and knows that all of them were posted less than 300 feet apart and that not less than three (3) notices were posted on said alley; to-wit, that five (5) notices in all were so posted;

That he completed the posting of said notices on the eighth day of April, 1935, and thereupon made and filed this affidavit.

B. C. Dougherty.
Street Superintendent of the City of Lodi.
